BAY EVIDENCE

Monthly Evidence Digest

October 2026 · Final issue · Version 1.0

Implementation moved forward while outcomes remained largely unmeasured

Main conclusion. October produced stronger evidence of local implementation: housing allocations, procurement stages, an operating behavioral-health facility, a detailed county PIT report, and an interim appellate order. Most records still stop before expenditure, occupancy, service quality, housing retention, or causal outcome.

Reader guide

- VERIFIED means the consequential claim is established by the reviewed record at the stated stage.
- PARTIALLY VERIFIED means part of the claim is established while a material document, denominator, stage, or reconciliation remains missing.
- DOCUMENTED CLAIM means a named institution or source made the statement; Bay Evidence does not convert that statement into independent proof.
- Money is never combined across authorization, appropriation, allocation, award, contract, disbursement and expenditure stages.

Executive summary

Bay Area first. Oakland adopted up to $50 million in affordable-housing allocation authority and advanced bond authority; Alameda County staff advanced Measure W capital, operating-support and vendor-pool proposals; Fremont tied enacted state appropriations to a year-round shelter plan; Berkeley authorized exclusive negotiation for 174 planned affordable homes; and San Rafael's Ritter Center reached an operating stage.

Data and law. Alameda County published a fuller 2026 PIT report with 8,201 people and Oakland at 54 percent of the county total. California's statewide estimate remains preliminary. The Ninth Circuit's Harrison order is interim and claim-specific, not a final merits ruling.

Correction at close. On November 1, Oakland's current RFQ page advertised a November 10 deadline even though an accessible cached page, procurement record and Addendum 01 had shown October 30. Bay Evidence retracted the closed-stage conclusion and published COR-011 with PARTIALLY VERIFIED status pending an updated addendum.

What changed from September

- September was dominated by enactment, statewide appropriation and planning authority. October added more project- and program-level implementation evidence.
- The evidence improved for Alameda County PIT reporting and Ritter Center operations, but it did not yet establish durable housing, service quality, clinical improvement or cost-effectiveness outcomes.
- New legal evidence narrowed the operative posture of the Berkeley Harrison case without resolving the merits.

What to watch

- Oakland's updated RFQ addendum, final deadline, respondent list and qualified-provider pool.
- Final Alameda County action records and executed Measure W agreements.
- Oakland's final bond ordinance and any 2027 issuance documents.
- HUD's standardized 2026 PIT release and California jurisdiction table.
- Homekey+ agreements, Ritter Center utilization and Liberation Park construction milestones.

Selected evidence boundaries

- HomeRise: an announced wind-down does not establish completed transfers, successor contracts, resident outcomes or final financial reconciliation.
- Alameda County October 27: staff recommendations and agenda items are not treated as final Board approval where minutes were unavailable.
- Liberation Park: public financing records and attributed construction reporting do not establish occupancy, completion or housing retention.
- Ritter Center: operating status is verified; projected annual reach remains an institutional forecast.

Laws policies and initiatives

POLICY OR INITIATIVE	STATUS	OCTOBER POSITION
SHIFT Senior ADU Pilot Program	VERIFIED	County procurement now defines a proposed administrator scope, financing model, participant process and 28-month implementation sequence.
Home Together 2030 draft plan	DOCUMENTED CLAIM	Analysis: this planning process could affect county service priorities; the eventual adopted plan and funding decisions must be inspected separately.
Oakland Affordable Housing Trust Fund ordinance update (OMC 15.62, file 27-0113)	VERIFIED	Analysis: if adopted, trust funds from redevelopment-dissolution distributions could pay operating and rental subsidies for housing that serves people experiencing homelessness and extremely-low-income households, and the 2027 sunset on using those funds for anti-displacement and homelessness-prevention services would be removed. How much money moves depends on later budget actions.
AB 1924 — Statewide homelessness prevention strategy	VERIFIED	AB 1924 requires the California Interagency Council on Homelessness to develop a statewide prevention strategy by July 1, 2028, including baseline estimates, agency roles and action plans, resource inventories, goals, metrics and evidence-based practices.
Proposition 1 (Nov. 3, 2026) — Veterans and Affordable Housing Bond Act of 2026 (SB 417)	VERIFIED	Proposition 1 would authorize $11.25 billion in state general obligation bonds: $10 billion for housing programs repaid by the General Fund and $1.25 billion for CalVet home loans repaid by participating veterans. LAO categories for the $10 billion: about $7.2 billion affordable multifamily rental (some for supportive housing), $1.1 billion homeownership, $500 million infrastructure, $450 million farmworker housing, $350 million UC/CSU student housing, $200 million tribal housing, $200 million local pilot programs.

Judicial development

Berkeley Homeless Union v City of Berkeley. The Ninth Circuit granted a stay for clearing the Harrison encampment and removing vehicles while denying a stay as to ADA relocation and property protections. Appeals were placed on the February calendar. The order is interim and does not finally resolve the merits.

Source note: Bay Evidence Funding and Contracts Ledger. Amounts preserve their recorded legal or administrative stage. No total is shown because contract ceilings, allocation authority, appropriations, awards and acceptance authority are not additive spending. Last verified November 1, 2026.

Monetary interpretation

- Oakland's up-to-$50-million resolution is allocation authority, not an expenditure ledger.
- Homekey+ is an announced award; agreement execution, disbursement, rehabilitation and occupancy remain later stages.
- Ritter Center is operating, but the award amount has not been reconciled to grant execution, draws or actual expenditure.

Research literature

STUDY	STATUS	DESIGN	LIMITATION
Beyond a Room and a Key: Veterans Support to Self-Reliance Pilot final evaluation	PARTIALLY VERIFIED	Longitudinal program evaluation following enrolled participants from June 2023 through May 2026; reported pre/post changes and descriptive housing exits; no randomized or matched comparison identified in the public materials reviewed.	Nonrandomized program evaluation; No matched comparison group identified in reviewed public materials; Self-reported and administrative measures may have different denominators and follow-up periods; Attrition and exposure duration require table-level review; Cost comparison to residential alternatives is not a cost-offset or net-savings estimate
Cost-Effectiveness of Expanding Housing Access for People Experiencing Homelessness and Opioid Use Disorder in California	DOCUMENTED CLAIM	Design review incomplete	Modeled, not observed, outcomes. Inputs combine observational studies, administrative records and prior models. Differences between housing states may reflect pre-existing health differences. Transition parameters come from LA County, not Oakland/Alameda. Criminal-justice costs are excluded. Results rest on structural assumptions. Not peer reviewed.

Expanding Interim Housing: Recent Trends in the Bay Area (Taking Stock of Interim Housing, Report 1 of 3)	PARTIALLY VERIFIED	Design review incomplete	Descriptive, not causal: the report does not test whether more beds reduced unsheltered homelessness. Bed counts are a one-night January 2024 snapshot; the authors note supply fluctuates and many programs have opened or closed since. HIC data are self-reported by Continuums of Care and not independently verified by HUD; PIT counts undercount homelessness. Motel-voucher and victim-service programs are excluded from the location analysis. Structure classification involved judgment (e.g., 'semi-congregate' rooms classed as non-congregate). Homekey awards could not be fully matched to HIC programs. Interview sample is small (five providers, five counties). Not peer reviewed.
Homeless Encampment Closures Before and After City of Grants Pass v Johnson	PARTIALLY VERIFIED	Design review incomplete	Observational before-and-after design with only six post-decision months. The study cannot isolate the Supreme Court ruling from Oakland policy, staffing, reporting, seasonal, or other contemporaneous changes. Closure reports are not counts of unique encampments or people, and repeat reports may reflect re-formation, incomplete closure, or reporting practices. The accessible materials do not measure housing placement, health outcomes, displacement destinations, or reductions in homelessness. The authors' statement that repeated closures are ineffective is an interpretation of recurrence, not a causal outcome evaluation.

Interpretive limits

- The veterans pilot follows participants over time but no randomized or matched comparison was identified in the public materials reviewed.
- The opioid-use-disorder housing record is a cost-effectiveness modeling preprint; model assumptions and peer review require further scrutiny.
- The interim-housing report is descriptive and contains a denominator or framing dispute that prevents a clean capacity-to-unsheltered comparison.
- The Oakland closure study uses administrative event data; it does not identify unique encampments or people, durable housing outcomes, or a single causal mechanism.

Data releases and revised metrics

METRIC	VALUE	PERIOD OR RELEASE	STATUS
Overall homelessness	8201 people	2026-01-22	VERIFIED

Preliminary change in unsheltered homelessness	-6.5 percent change	Reported 2025 figures to preliminary 2026 statewide estimate	PARTIALLY VERIFIED
Overall homelessness (Point-in-Time Count)	8201 people	2026-01-21/2026-01-22 (sheltered: night of January 21; unsheltered enumeration: morning of January 22)	VERIFIED

Source note: Alameda County PIT records are one-night cross-sectional estimates. The 2024 HIC value is a bed inventory. California's 2026 statewide change is preliminary pending jurisdiction-level inputs and HUD confirmation.

Contradictions and uncertainty

- Oakland's RFQ deadline conflicts across current and cached official page versions and the older addendum.
- Alameda County's October 27 proposals lacked posted minutes during the review window.
- Liberation Park financing, unit mix and completion descriptions vary across records.
- The statewide PIT estimate cannot establish why the estimate changed.
- Ritter Center's projected annual reach is not measured service or outcome data.

Methodology

- Primary legal, fiscal, procurement, meeting, court, award and data records were reviewed first.
- Institutional statements are treated as claims about the institution's action or position, not independent proof of effectiveness.
- Every consequential record carries a stable ID, status, verification date, source URLs and relationships.
- Authorization, appropriation, allocation, award, contract, disbursement and expenditure remain separate monetary stages.
- Research records preserve design, sample or data source, geography, period, measures and limitations when available.
- Corrections remain public. A later source conflict is logged rather than silently overwriting the earlier record.
- Exact record-count and funding tables replace a chart because the underlying units and fiscal stages are not commensurable.
